

NCOIL SPOUSAL/GUEST TOURS Newport, RI. – July 15 & 16, 2011

FRIDAY, JULY 15 – PRIVATE COACH – NARRATED TOUR – LUNCH – CLIFF WALK

Please meet Sandy Feldman at 9:30 a.m. in the lobby of the Marriott Hotel where we'll depart via mini-coach for a private, narrated tour of Newport's fabulous mansions. Join us as we journey back in time to one of America's premier collections of historic house museums. We will tour Rough Point, the former home of Doris Duke - heiress, philanthropist and art collector. Her magnificent oceanfront estate is decorated as she left it with French furniture, European art, Chinese porcelains, and Turkish carpets collected from exotic locations around the world. Located on Newport's exclusive Bellevue Avenue, Rough Point provides a sweeping ocean view and expansive grounds. Lunch will be in the Safari Room at OceanCliff Hotel & Resort. OceanCliff was designed and built in 1864 by the Boston architects Peabody & Stearns who designed the original Breakers and Doris Duke's Rough Point. After lunch, we'll walk along the Cliff Walk and enjoy a scenic ocean view. Cost per person: $98.00 - includes tour guide, private mini-bus, admission, lunch, gratuities and taxes. We'll be back at the hotel by 3:00 p.m. THIS TOUR IS FULL!

SATURDAY, JULY 16 – RUM RUNNER II

We'll meet on Saturday afternoon in the Marriott lobby at 1:00 P.M. and walk to pier where we'll board the Rum Runner II. Newport's harbor is one of the most historic, exciting and beautiful in New England. We'll enjoy an incredible motorboat tour of Newport Harbor and relive the speed and thrill of the chase on a smuggler boat from the Prohibition era. Motor Yacht Rum Runner II was originally built for two New Jersey mobsters to elude the Coast Guard while speeding cases of "Hooch" to their customers. Complimentary water and juices will be available on board. Cost: per person $42.00 includes private boat charter, tax and tip. Back to the hotel by 3:30 p.m.
